MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT PDAC

The Delegation PDAC 2018 programme exposes you to the global mining industry and provides a detailed look at Canadian and Greenlandic operations – You will gain insights from senior leaders of major companies, governments and organizations at various level of the supply chain. Make the most of it!

SUCCESS IS DEPENDENT ON ‘HOMEWORK’ FROM YOUR SIDE

- Establish key takeaways you want to gain from PDAC 2018, then search for events, seminars where you can meet the right people – ‘PDAC Convention Programming’ and ‘PDAC Convention Networking Events’
- Create a ‘wish list’ of desired contacts

OPTIMIZE YOUR PARTICIPATION

- Be a subject matter expert presenter - contact the Royal Danish Consulate Toronto early to see if you can be included in the programme, on a topic of interest to the delegation, no sales pitches (latest submissions November 30)
- Ask questions during presentations, offer your insight, be engaged, review the event agenda ahead of time
- Plan which companies you would like to meet ahead of time, find the location of their booth online and visit them
- Arrange an individual B2B programme through the Royal Danish Consulate Toronto

STRENGTHEN YOUR NETWORK

- Invite your current business contacts to meet you during PDAC – come to our networking events. See each event for direction on inviting guests.
- Research event presenters, arrive early to network and follow-up after PDAC
- The Danish Consulate will be sending out a list of all participants from the week of events, with contact details

BE PRESENT

- Optional Bring roll up banners to be placed in the seminar rooms and reception on Monday March 5.
- Be at the Greenland Booth with business cards to meet with interested guests coming to find you!
